ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thank you to:

Creation of this curriculum would not have been possible without the participation of the six presenters: Rev. Abhi Janamanchi, Dr. Nan Sook Park, Rev. Sam Trumbore, Dr. Carolyn C. Wells, Dr. Jack Zak, and Dr. Earl A. Zimmerman. May their sermons included herein have long-lasting value and their wisdom be shared with as many as possible.

Likewise, this curriculum would not have been possible without the support of members of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Tampa where I served as settled minister 2007 – 2013. My gratitude to them for their assistance in obtaining the grant from the Unitarian Universalist Funding Program that made this curriculum possible. Thank you to the UUF for funding our proposal.

My gratitude also to beloved colleagues: the Reverends Roger Bertschausen, Helen Lutton Cohen, Mary Louise DeWolf, Kendyl Gibbons, Meg Doyle Morgan, Karl E. Peters, and Paul Rasor; and to Liwwiwa R. Villagomez, MS, RN. Thank you all for giving your permission to quote your words.

Gratitude to all of the following without whose support and input this curriculum would not have come together:

*members of the UU Church of Tarpon Springs, Florida, and Unitarian Church North in Mequon, Wisconsin, who offered their support and guidance as focus groups when the project was in the earliest stages; and to Kathy Stevens, of the Tarpon Springs congregation, for volunteering as videographer's assistant.

* Rev. Amy Kindred and lay leader Mary Holly Allison of the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Charlotte County who read the near-final draft and shared their expert wisdom to guide the final production.

* Hank and Yvonne Charneskey of Von Henry Studios, Clearwater, Florida, for their filming of the sermon videos and production of the DVDs.

Thank you all.

Rev. Dr. Sara Zimmerman, April 12, 2014, Tampa, Florida
