Our Seven UU Principles:

1st Principle: The inherent worth and dignity of every person.

2nd Principle: Justice, equity and compassion in human relations.

3rd Principle: Acceptance of one another and encouragement of spiritual growth in our congregations.

4th Principle: A free and responsible search for truth and meaning.

5th Principle: The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at-large.

6th Principle: The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all. 7th Principle: Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Unitarian Universalist Church of Tampa Covenant:

We, the members of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Tampa, Covenant with one another:

To strengthen our church community while following our own spiritual paths, To honor diversity as a source of communal strength and to be a welcoming community;

Because our acts and words weave the web that connects us to one another: We accept responsibility for what we do and say,

We communicate with one another in kindness and support,

We promote the safety and well being of the congregation,

We practice the democratic process,

We support this church with our money and time.

We make our contributions with compassion and commitment,

We work together to build a joyful community that affirms peace justice and spiritual fulfillment.

We hold ourselves and each other responsible for adhering to this covenant.

MISSION STATEMENT

> A pledge is a sacred vow, a promise to stay true to a commitment we've made. The Pledge to End Racism holds each of us accountable to engage everyday in the work of addressing racism wherever we find it, from interpersonal interactions to the institutions we support and the systems we participate in. It's more than saying, "I'm not a racist." Instead, it is a solemn promise to study, learn, interact, and join with others to take action to ensure that all people truly experience justice, equity, and compassion.

Happening Today

Our Guest Speaker today is Annette Marquis. Annette is a member of First Unitarian Universalist Church of Richmond, VA. Until recently, she served the Unitarian Universalist Association as the LGBTQ and Multicultural Programs Director and prior to that, as District Executive for the Southeast District and the first Regional Lead of the Southern Region of the UUA. In 2015, Annette and Anita Lee developed The Pledge to End Racism Program, which, in addition to Richmond, is now active in over fifteen cities around the country. She is also a founding member of the Living Legacy Project, which conducts regular pilgrimages to key civil rights sites in Mississippi and Alabama. Annette lives in Richmond with her poet-librarian wife, Wendy DeGroat.

Share the Plate: Once a month we share the plate. Today all cash and checks collected during the offertory will be donated to MacDonald's Training Center. Please make checks out to UUCT with Share the Plate in the memo line. All pledges to UUCT should be written out and identified as such on the memo line. ***

First on 1st: Interested in learning about Unitarian Universalism? This is an informal meet and greet after service today in the sanctuary that will give you information about our community, our faith tradition and how you can learn more! Open to everyone after service today.

Join us after the conclusion of the service today in the multi-purpose building for coffee. Please remember our coffee and snack fund is self sustaining, so before you partake, please stuff a dollar into the donation can. If you have been enjoying the variety and quality of snacks make sure you continue to fund it. Thank you and enjoy.

For the month of March our theme is Blessing.

Next Sunday March 11, 2018 'Invisible Work' Rev. Patricia A. Owen

There is more to an iceberg than what we see. You and I are no different. How might we practice awareness that shines light on our invisible work?

THE ANNUAL UUCT AUCTION IS RIGHT AROUND THE CORNER! Sunday, April 8!

Once again, we will auction delicious dinners to suit different tastes, whether you're a vegan or an omnivore. Bid on services or events provided by your fellow UUs (and others). There will be a wonderful variety of things to bid on. Best of all, the auction is a fun thing to be part of. The "vibe" around the auction is a wonderful one, and you don't want to miss it.

If you have an item or a service you would like to offer to the auction, send an email to auction@uutampa.org along with specific information. Operators are standing by...

All auction proceeds go to the church general fund. But the auction is about more than just money. Dinners and parties are a great way to get to know people better or spend quality time with old friends. The services offered highlight the skills of our congregation and its friends.

Lunch will be provided between the morning service and the beginning of the auction, so mark April 8 on your calendars.

Spring Picnic is looking for Crafts, crafts, crafts...

The Board is sponsoring a Spring Picnic after church on March 11. There will be some crafters there with some wares to sell. If you are interested in a table to display your wares, contact wickedyram@gmail.com Pay $15 for one table of your items

Serving on the Board is a great way to be meaningfully engaged in the life and mission of our church. In the coming weeks the Nominating Team is seeking candidates for Trustee positions and the subsequent election to be held at the Congregational meeting on May 6, 2018.

Interested parties should meet the following qualifications: A member in good standing, leadership ability, a desire to serve, orderly approach to decision making, sense of integrity and honesty, willingness to keep an open mind, a team player, and a good sense of humor who can commit to several hours a week, on average.

Trustees serve three year terms and the newly elected trustee's term begins on September 1st. Serving on the Board is an important way to live out your values while helping to maintain and grow a strong organizational foundation that can support and sustain this vibrant community.

If you are interested, or wish to suggest someone to serve on the board, contact one of our Leadership Committee members: Ed Benedict, Diane Gainforth, Russ Kirby, Russ Patterson, and John Powers. You may also email Ed Benedict at nominating@uutampa.org to nominate yourself or to recommend someone else as a candidate for the Board.

All nominations need to be turned by Wednesday, March 14, 2018.
